

Editorial Comment

Several of the Western States are so close that that the official count will be required to settle some of the finishes. This is true in Kansas, California, Idaho, Wyoming and Washington. Divided electoral delegations are possible in one or two States.

Dunne's plurality in the race for Governor of Illinois was 122,016, complete returns show. He polled 446,278 votes; Deneen, Republican, was second with 324,262 votes, and Funk, Progressive, third with 309,457. The total vote cast was 1,097,997.

With returns received from all but forty small precincts in Washington in many of which the total will not be more than fifteen or twenty, Lister, Democrat, has a plurality for Governor over Hay, Republican, of 698.

Democrats control the Tennessee Legislature by 75 votes on joint ballot, 67 necessary to elect, but the 11 members from Memphis make up an uncertain quantity controlled by Mayor Crump.

Frank T. O'Hair, the young Democrat who beat Uncle Joe Cannon, is a native of Wolfe county, Ky., and a cousin of South Trimble. It was not thought he had the ghost of a chance.

The wife of Governor elect E. G. Dunn, of Iowa, is a Kentucky girl, formerly Miss Laura Delker, of Henderson. They were married about six months ago.

Ambassador James Bryce, Great Britain's representative, has been recalled and will be succeeded at Washington, by Sir Cecil Arthur Spring-Rice.

Roosevelt has a lead of 900 in California with a few precincts out, but Wilson is sure of one of the 13 votes, as one Roosevelt elector ran behind his ticket.

The Shelbyville Council has elected Leon Rothchild Mayor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mayor L. T. Gruber.

Gov. Deneen has called an extra session of the old Legislature of Illinois to elect Lorimer's successor.

Both of New Hampshire's new Congressmen are Democrats. Wilson carried the State by 1,800.

Wilson's plurality in Illinois is 16,105. Danne, Democrat, for Governor, had a larger majority.

McCreary county started out by going for Taft and Caleb Powers.

Wilson and Marshall are both elders in the Presbyterian church.

Frank Byrne, Rep., pulled in as Governor of South Dakota.

Uncle Joe didn't even make an O'Hair breadth escape.

TWO PENSIONS

Granted to Widows of Local Confederate Veterans.

Capt. W. J. Stone, Pension Examiner for the state, has given out a list of 164 pensions granted by the Board to indigent Confederates or the widows of such. Two of the beneficiaries are from Hopkinsville, viz: Mrs. Julia Boxley and Mrs. Roxie E. Calhoun. Three in Trigg county, viz: Mrs. Susan Bingham, Wallonia; Mrs. Amelia E. Bray, Cadiz; and Mrs. Laura J. Cunningham, Cadiz. Only three letters have been passed in the alphabetical list.

Injured By Fall

Mrs. Robt. S. Green, while hanging curtains in her new home on East Eighteenth street, had a fall Saturday by a step of the ladder on which she was standing giving way. One wrist and one ankle were so badly sprained that she will be partially disabled for a few days.

COUNTY JAILER C. J. TROUT, OF ELKTON, KILLED BY NEGRO

Had Escaped From Jail and Secured His Pistol With Which He Shot the Officer.

Elkton, Ky., Nov. 11.—An escaped negro prisoner named Albert Jennings this morning at five o'clock shot and killed C. J. Trout, county jailer. Trout died in a few hours. Jennings had escaped from jail with another negro and had snatched the jailer's pistol and when an attempt was made to arrest him he shot and killed the jailer. Later he was arrested and taken to Bowling Green. Intense excitement prevails, as Jailer Trout was a very popular officer and feeling is running high against the negro.

KENTUCKY BAPTISTS

Meet Today At Madisonville From All Parts of the State.

Beginning today the Baptists of the State will hold several days' sessions at Madisonville. Rev. Calvin M. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist church, is moderator. The following gentlemen represent the local church: W. A. Long, John Qualls, H. H. Adams and Paul Winn. The organizations composing the Association are: The Baptist Historical Society; the Kentucky Baptist Educational Association, having in charge fourteen colleges; the Kentucky Baptist Ministers' Association. The general body is composed of ministers and laymen of 76 associations in the State. The Women's Union of the State will be present and hold their sessions during the week.

Senatorial Gains.

Colorado, Jno. F. Shafer, R. Colorado, C. S. Thomas. Montana, T. J. Walsh. Kansas, Wm. H. Thompson. Delaware, a Democrat. New Jersey, Wm. Hughes. Tennessee, a Democrat. Nevada, Pittman. Oregon, Dr. Harry Lane. Illinois, in doubt. Iowa, in doubt. S. Dakota, in doubt. Wyoming, in doubt. Six needed to control.

COL. HART

Popular Drummer Now a Full-fledged Colonel.

Col. Isaac Hart, who has been a colonel in the past by reason of his affiliation with the Hopkinsville Baldheaded Club, which confers the title on all of its third-degree members, is now a colonel in fact and liable to be called into active warfare at any time. On Saturday he received a commission from Gov. James B. McCreary appointing him a colonel on his staff and is assigned to duty as aide de camp. Col. Hart prizes the document very highly and will have it framed and preserve it with his other most cherished possessions. Should war be declared with Mexico, Cuba or Nicaragua, Col. Hart stands ready to lead a regiment to the front and, if necessary, lay down his life for his country.

"UNCLE JOHN" FAULKNER.

Aged Citizen Of Trigg Takes A New Wife.

Mr. John Faulkner, aged 89, and Mrs. Mary Johnson, aged 43, both of the Caladonia neighborhood, were married in Clarksville, Thursday. Both have been married before. "Uncle John" has one son, Charlie Faulkner, near Gracey, and his wife has five children, two of them grown. The aged groom is hale and hearty.

BULGARIANS PUSHING ON

Towards The Capital Of Turkey And Powers Take Notice.

SETTLEMENT IS PROPOSED.

By Which Six Nations Shall All Send Ships To Constantinople.

Constantinople, Nov. 11.—The Porte having granted permission for the passage of a second warship of each of the powers, the Russian battleship Rostislav, the British armored cruiser Hampshire, and the Austro-Hungarian scout ship Admiral Spaun passed through the Dardanelles yesterday.

Settlement In Sight

Parris, Nov. 11.—Great Britain, France and Russia, constituting the triple entente, and Germany, Austria and Italy, the triple alliance, are believed to be at the point of reaching an agreement to prevent Bulgarian army from occupying Constantinople. The six governments find themselves in accord on the principle, and active exchanges are in progress as to the means to be taken to bring about this result.

One suggestion is a collective provisional occupation of Constantinople by the six powers with the consent of Turkey under the assumption that such action was necessary to protect the subjects of the respective nations and to maintain order. The Bulgarian government appears already to have indicated that it has no intention of trying to hold Constantinople and that it would occupy the Turkish capital temporarily only, until peace had been arranged.

NEW PRINCIPAL

Expected To Be On Hand When High School Resumes Wednesday.

Prof. M. L. Girton, of Muscogee, Okla., who has been elected principal of the High School, was due to arrive last night. Prof. Bowden is expected to leave to-day. The High School was suspended Thursday until tomorrow, pending the adjustment of the troubles leading up to the changes in the faculty. A petition, numerously signed by patrons of the school, has been presented to the Board of Trustees, the purport of which has not been given out.

GRACEY REVIVAL.

Successful Meeting At West Union Baptist Church.

A revival meeting has been in progress at Gracey for the last two weeks, at the West Union Baptist church. Rev. H. C. Hopewell, of Sturgis, assisting the pastor, Rev. C. H. Gregston. Up to Sunday there had been 15 additions to the church, 13 by confession and 5 by letter. The converts were baptized in a pond near the church. Mr. Hopewell has preached a series of strong sermons and the church has been greatly strengthened and revived.

Hill-Jameson.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Eula Jameson to Mr. George Lytle Hill, of Paducah, Nov. 21 at the Methodist church in Greenville. Miss Jameson is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Jameson, of Weir, and has a large circle of friends and relatives in this county. —Greenville Sentinel.

SOLICITING FOR FAIR

Committees Are Meeting With Much Encouragement.

PROMPT ACTION IS URGED.

Important Meeting Held Saturday and Vital Questions Were Discussed.

The solicitors for subscriptions to the stock to the Pennyroyal Fair Association met at the office of the R. M. A. last Saturday afternoon.

Encouraging reports were made by different committeemen and several questions of great importance were brought up and discussed. The new form of conditions on which subscriptions of stock are being made meets with general favor and many new subscriptions were reported having been secured.

Chairman Cowherd presided over the meeting and he impressed upon the committee the necessity of prompt action and going about their work with purely business methods.

Let every man know what he is signing for and that it is to be a regular county fair for the benefit of the farmers and stock raisers, and it will not be long before people will be looking for the members of the committee, instead of the committee looking for enterprising farmers to aid in starting a fair of the old kind.

MRS. LATHAM SUED

John C. Duffy Brought Suit For $390.00 As Fee In Compromise Case.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—John C. Duffy filed suit here this morning against Mrs. E'sie Gaylord Latham, for $3,900.00.

He claims this amount as attorney's fee in a case in which, according to his petition, he secured $39,000 for her on a compromise out of the amount left to the Hopkinsville poor at Grace church at Hopkinsville.

Mr. Duffy is a well known lawyer and is county attorney of Christian county.

USED CORN KNIFE

On the Head of a Rival Swain Saturday Night.

John Beasley, col., cut Jim Duffy, col., over the head with a corn knife in the cabin occupied by Ellen Green, on 21st street, Saturday night at a late hour. Beasley was in the house when Duffy entered and asked for a drink of water and was attacked by Beasley. A blow on the head glanced off, chipping a piece of the skull, and the leaders of the left wrist were severed in trying to ward off the blow. Duffy was able to be out yesterday. Beasley is in jail and his trial will be held tomorrow.

Weather For Week.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—In the south the weather will be fair and warm in the first half of the week, probably followed by local rains later, with falling temperature in the west gulf states, according to the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau.

Where He Belongs.

Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight pugilist, Saturday night was landed in the Cook county jail at Chicago on a charge of violating the Mann act. A. C. Jones, who attempted to go on Johnson's $30,000 bond, was arrested on a charge of perjury.

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN

Thorough Canvass Of The City To Be Made In One Busy Hour.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

Hopkinsville Business Men's Association Planning For Increase Of Membership.

In past years have several business organizations looking to the building up and general advancement of the interests of the city, but for some unknown reasons they simply died of inanition and existence ceased.

The Hopkinsville Business Men's Association is alive—more so than ever before—and results are sure to follow the exertion being put forth for the permanency of the organization. There is nothing this city needs more than the Association and the membership is fully convinced of this.

Last Friday night the Association had a rousing good meeting. The attendance was large and discussion of important questions was participated in by many of those present.

An address by Rev. E. B. Landis on "The need of all enterprises cooperating for the advancement of our city," was listened to with marked attention and aroused much enthusiasm. After Mr. Landis' address the association partook of a four course luncheon.

The Association is determined to increase its membership to 500 and the members divided into two classes.

These two classes under the captaincy of C. O. Wright and H. A. Keach will conduct a whirlwind campaign for one hour this morning from 8:30 to 9:30 to increase the membership and the losing side will pay for an oyster supper for the winning side. A vigorous canvass is expected to make the city a hot bed of enthusiastic activity during the hour set apart for the work.

CRY OF NEED

Again Heard and Orphans' Home Gets Generous Check.

Editor Kentuckian:

I desire to say through your columns that again has the appeal of the needy child reached ears that are not deaf to its pathetic cry and hearts that are not barren of noble impulses and generous deeds. During my recent absence from the city a check for $75 was handed to Mr. G. H. Champlin as a donation to the West Kentucky Orphans' Home. This has been handed me and I am pleased to acknowledge this expression of good will and sympathy on the part of Messrs. C. F. Jarrett, R. H. Holland and M. V. Dulin. The above amount was, I am informed, a balance on final settlement of the affairs of the old Christian County Fair Co., and is in part being applied to furnishing the new Home. Other donations to current expenses are needed and I have great faith that they will come.

W. D. HUMPHREY,
Supt. West Ky. Orphans' Home.

Saturday Night Wedding.

There was a quiet wedding on West Side Saturday, the principals being Mrs. Johnnie Winders and Mr. Stanley A. Beestem. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. E. Watson, pastor of Hille's Chapel, Mr. Watson officiating.

The bride is the widow of the late T. R. Winders. The groom is connected with the local office of the Kentucky Central Insurance Company.

SOCCER

BY APPEY

The gore that once upon the grid
Its carmine mantle spread,
The broken bones and dying groans,
The mangled, maimed and dead,
The basketfuls of missing ears,
Of noses, thumbs and toes,

The battered "mugs" and tattered "lugs",
The clash of savage foes,
All, all shall vanish from the field,
As vanish mists away;
A brighter, fairer day shall dawn
When teams consent to play—
—Soccer—

No more the anguished shriek shall rend
The circumambient air,
Nor students grow umbrageous crops
Of skull-protecting hair.

Let "pugs" delight to scrap and fight,
Perchance their brows are low;
Let brutal wrestlers hug and bite,
For nature made them so;

But college boys should never yearn
To fight like dogs and cats,
Their little feet were never made
To kick each other's slats—
O you Soccer!

But what is Soccer, do you ask?
Well, gentle reader, I

Will tell thee what and how and which,
Though I can not tell why.
It is a fair and gentle joust
As one might wish to play;
You do not seek to maim or mar,
To mangle or to slay.

You merely chase the bounding ball,
And run to beat the band.
And when you overtake it, why,
You raise your footsie, and——Sock 'er!

Now all acclaim "Long live the game!"
And Soccer, long live it.
We'll blithely chase the bounding ball
And not be rough a bit.

We'll never gouge our foeman's eye,
Nor jump upon his "tum";
Nor seek to masticate his ear
Like unto chewing gum;

We'll never, never bend his face,
Nor rudely pull or haul,
For though there be some gentle kicks,
The pigskin gets 'em all—
In Soccer.

The November Wide World
Magazine.

One of the most interesting articles in the November Wide World Magazine is entitled "The Surf-Board Riders of Hawaii." The author calls it "the king of summer sports" and few people reading his account of its delights and thrills will be inclined to cavil at the description. Surf-riding is one of the most ancient pastimes of the Hawaiians, but the white man has taken to it with enthusiasm and bids fair to beat the native at his own game. Another interesting article is "In Pursuit of Silver-Tips," which recounts how a party of cow-punchers went after a couple of silver-tipped bears with their ropes and an old revolver minus a sight. Nothing more exciting than the sequel has ever happened in Wyoming. Other articles which will be widely read are "With a Camera in Egypt," "To Menelik With a Motor," "The Pirates of the Neuvra Tigre" and "In the Heart of South America." Lady Swayne, wife of the Governor of British Honduras, vividly describes that little known colony.

INVENTOR OF VOLAPUK.

While the Esperanto congress was in session at Krakau recently the news was received of the death at Konstanz of Dr. Martin Schleyer, who about thirty years ago gave to the world the form of a "universal language," which he called Volapuk. The word was derived from the two English words "world" and "speak." The language, with its 1,300 "root words," was studied diligently by many people, some of whom predicted its speedy universal adoption. But this did not deter Dr. Zamenhof from proceeding with his work in the same direction, which he finally published over the name Dr. Esperanto. Commenting on the work of the two men, a writer in the Berlin Post says, in conclusion: "Schleyer died at eighty-one; his language died before him.
Zamenhof is still alive, and his language is known as Esperanto."

LIKED THE SLIDE.

A jolly little English bulldog, first interfered with, and then boosted the shoot-the-chutes game of some boys in an amusement park of St. Louis on the Fourth of July by its determination to join the gang. The boys, thinking one trip would be sufficient to warrant retirement, gave him a start, but after its first slide, it wagged the merriest kind of a tail and made a bee-line for the ladder, which it tried to mount for the next trip. The next hour was spent in carrying the dog to the top of the chute and then wagging themselves alongside for the heering, as he slid past.

LUNATIC AS DOCTOR.

While a prominent specialist was absent from the consulting room in Berlin the other day, a lunatic managed to obtain admission, and posed as the doctor to the many patients who called, giving them prescriptions and advice. There appeared to be nothing unusual in his manner until a lady who was a constant patient asked him if he was acting as substitute during the holidays. The impostor laughed, and told her to take peppermint lozenges for her lung trouble. The woman raised the alarm, and the madman was taken into custody. Considerable anxiety is felt for the other patients, for whom he may have prescribed poison. All the pharmacists have been advised of the affair.

OFFICIALISM IN GERMANY.

It is estimated that an eighth of the male Germans whom the census returns as independently earning a living are either permanent officials of state or municipal employes. The Volkspartei leader, Dr. Frederick Naumann, some years ago estimated the state and municipal officials alone at 1,200,000. But these 1,200,000 were all "officials" in the strict sense; and did not include 500,000 state railway employes who are only workers; and also excluded the vast majority of municipal employes who are not "officials." The "official" staff of the state railways number about 36,000;
the "official" post and telegraph employes 320,000; the school teachers 183,000.

VALUABLE RING RECOVERED.

Under remarkable circumstances a valuable gold ring, set with sapphires and pearls, belonging to a resident of Rochester, near Uttoxeter, Staffordshire, England, has been discovered after being missing for over four years. It is assumed that the ring must have been carted away with ashes, for while working on a near-by farm a bailiff found the ring in a field. Although it had been missing for such a lengthy period the ring was not in the least tarnished. The man who was working in the field with the bailiff happened to remember the loss of the ring.

HAS PET CHIMPANZEE.

Capt. H. W. Long, British royal army medical corps, who has arrived at Plymouth on his way to London from Sierra Leone, has brought home with him a trained female chimpanzee, which he calls Lady Sassa, M. D. When she is given a case of surgical instruments she will select and use a stethoscope, and she is an adept at feeling the pulse. With the thermometer she is equally at home and she always gives it the professional shake before using it. Dispensing is also among her accomplishments. Lady Sassa whistles, but does not talk.

WATERPROOFING COTTON.

An easy method of waterproofing cotton is the formation of aluminum stearate in the fiber of the cloth, which may readily be done by immersing it in a solution of aluminum sulphate in water (1 in 10), and without allowing to dry, passing through a solution of soap made from soda and tallow or similar fat in hot water.
Reaction between the aluminum sulphate and the soap produces aluminum stearate and sodium sulphate.
The former is insoluble and remains in the fiber, the latter is removed by frequently rinsing the fabric in water.

OUTLINE OF PLANS FOR EXHIBITS

National Conservation Exposition, Knoxville, Tenn., 1913, Planned in Accordance With History.

RESOURCES OF SOUTHLAND

Will illustrate the Ways in Which the Natural Wealth in Forests, Minerals and Human Efficiency May Be More Effectively Utilized.

The National Conservation Exposition is planned in accordance with exposition history especially to illustrate the modern idea of forecasting prospective development, especially throughout the Southern States. In a broad way the design is to illustrate the ways in which the natural wealth in forests, waters, minerals, and human efficiency are now used and may be still more effectively utilized in promoting the prosperity and assuring the perpetuity of the American people.

The Resources in Lands.

Recognizing the soil made fruitful by the natural water supply as that resource on which more than all others the generations of men must depend for materials for food and clothing, it is planned to devote large space to the exhibits of the soil and its products, of the best methods of maintaining and increasing production, and of progress in improving the grade and yields of plant and animal products.

Forest Resources.

Our forest resources are second in importance only to the land itself, because of the many important industries for which the forest furnishes the raw material, and of the forest's beneficial influences upon such other natural riches as waters for irrigation, power and navigation, fish and game animals, and the land itself. Considerable attention is to be devoted to forest exhibits.

It is planned to illustrate the existing forest resources, with their production and reproduction, their utilization, and their influences upon other resources.

Water Resources.

The water resources of the country in general and of the South in particular will be displayed with reference to the use of water (a) for domestic supply, (b) for agricultural production (whether applied by natural means or irrigation), (c) for power, and (d) for navigation.

Mineral.

The mineral resources of the country as a whole and especially of South-eastern United States will be exhibited as the chief basis for the greatness of this country in manufacturing and as a means of maintaining our industrial supremacy.

Human Efficiency—Health.

By far the most important of all our natural resources is man himself. It is to render his life more efficient that any form of conservation is advocated. Those vital forces intimate to himself are highest and noblest, and to their development, conservation and best use deep thought and great effort should be devoted.

The abolition of child labor, particularly in the Southern States, the reduction of infant mortality, the eradication of disease, especially tuberculosis, the hook worm and typhoid fever will be graphically presented.

Education.

Another most important element in human development is education. The school is a crucial problem in the commercial upbuilding of the Southern States. School hygiene and sanitation, domestic economy, vocational training, industrial education for the negro, and rural school advancement shall be subjects for exhibition and shall be presented in the form of model demonstrations and in other ways.

Domestic Economy.

So important is this subject considered as an element in greater human efficiency that, although it might properly be included as a part of another section, it is thought well to devote a separate paragraph to it. Home-making is the first and most important step in nation making. The work of the wife and mother in the establishment and maintenance of a comfortable home, in the preparing of proper foods and by her wisdom and radiation of domestic tranquility and happiness can contribute at least as much to the prosperity of the nation and the efficiency of its citizens as can the husband and father by his efforts in the outside world.

Good Roads.

Good roads are necessary requisites to development. Exhibits will be made of good roads in the form of (1) actual demonstration roads, (2) models showing materials, manner of construction, and the finished work, (3) road making materials and machinery, (4) maps of important highways, (5) photographic enlargements of both good and bad roads and the consequences and industrial and social conditions attending each.

Fish and Game Resources.

The co-operation of Audubon societies, fish and game commissions, and other organizations for the preservation of bird and animal life will be sought in exhibiting our animal resources and encouraging their perpetuation.

VIEW OF UPPER LAKE AND LIBERAL ARTS BUILDING, NATIONAL CONSERVATION EXPOSITION.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. and Oct. 1913.

The above view will give some idea of the great beauty of the National Conservation Exposition grounds and the character of the buildings which are now under construction.

EAST TENNESSEE BUILDING, NATIONAL CONSERVATION EXPOSITION.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. and Oct. 1913.

This building is to be erected by the thirty-four counties of the Eastern Division of Tennessee, and will contain exhibits from each county of agricultural products, minerals, hardwoods, etc. This building will contain 30,000 feet of exhibit space, and the displays made therein will show the extent and variety of natural resources of one of the most favored regions of the Middle South.

THE ALL SOUTH BUILDING.

The Southern States Building of the National Conservation Exposition, which will be held at Knoxville for two months, September and October, 1913, will be one of the largest and most attractive structures of this great national show. This building is designed to contain exhibits of manufactured products of the sixteen Southern States, especially such as will show the processes of manufacture which prevent waste and utilize by-products.

VIEW OF LAKE AND FORESTRY BUILDING, NATIONAL CONSERVATION EXPOSITION.
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. and Oct. 1913.

The above view shows the Forestry Building, completed, National Conservation Exposition. To the left of this building, as an annex, will be erected the Minerals Building. These buildings will occupy the most beautiful site on the grounds, the elevations being such as to afford a bird's-eye view of lakes, drives, buildings and amusement district.

NATIONAL CONSERVATION EXPOSITION.

Knoxville, Tennessee, September and October, 1913, Provides Attractive Grounds For Amusement District.

The section of the grounds of the National Conservation Exposition, Knoxville, Tenn., September and October, 1913, which has been set aside as the amusement district, will be arranged by landscape architects with a view to making the location one of extraordinary attractiveness. Terrace

Park, as it is known, will be famous always hereafter. The plan decided upon by the exposition management in this feature will, when carried out, afford the most unique display and arrangement of grounds ever seen in a midway section. The lay of the land is such as to permit of a street that will traverse the section from the main gateway on the lake to the lower end, returning in a gradual curve to a point near the beginning and again winding toward the upper side of the grounds back to the lower park entrance. This will afford a series of terraces, and the amusement places will be arranged as to rise in steps from the lake front to the back of the grounds. It does not require a stretch of imagination to picture the appearance of this section when illuminated at night. This plan is part of the general landscape work which will be carried out in all parts of the exposition grounds. The management feels that one of the greatest attractions which the exposition can present to visitors can be formed by utilizing the natural beauty of the location in modern landscape work. A beautiful park is quite as necessary as fine buildings and exhibits, and the locality lends itself to the most artistic plans that a landscape artist could devise.

The November Strand Magazine

There are a number of good things in the November Strand besides nine short stories by such writers as Bertram Atkey, P. G. Wodehouse, Post Wheeler, Mary Tennyson and Austin Phillips. An article entitled "The Press Agent" is contributed by the late Henry B. Harris, the theatrical manager, and many amusing stories of the tricks of the professional publicity man are related. An article that is timely is "The Story and Romance of Shorthand." Next year we celebrate the centenary of phonograph and everyone who has had occasion to use Sir Isaac Pitman's invention will be interested in the voluminously illustrated article in this month's Strand. "The Light Side of Flying," "My Favorite Love-Scene" (a symposium of well-known actors and actresses), "Parsons' Wit" and "The Perils of the Pedestrian" are other articles of note.

Here is convincing proof of merit, Monroe Davis, butcher, Earlington, Ky., says: "About two years ago I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney trouble and found them very beneficial. For quite awhile I had been afflicted with weak kidneys and my back ached intensely. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in the papers, I got a supply and their use as directed cured me in a short time. I can highly recommend this remedy."

Flower Keeps Its Freshness.

A common South African flower possesses the valuable property of keeping fresh for two months or more after cutting. It is a white star of Bethlehem, producing a compact spike of flowers on a stiff, erect stalk 18 inches or two feet long. The flowers are of a thin and papery tissue, all white except the yellow anthers. It can be sent over as a cut flower from South Africa to England, and then lasts for weeks in water.

The Best Family Newspaper.

One of the modern problems that confront the conscientious homemaker is the wise choice of a daily newspaper. The ideal family paper must be clean, free from vulgarity and sensationalism, yet must offer something of interest to every member of the household, besides printing the latest news of the whole world in reliable and attractive form. A large contract, you will say, Yes, but an increasing number of readers seem to be convinced that The Chicago Record-Herald fairly comes up to the specifications. This great daily has made tremendous strides in the last year or two without lowering its standards one iota.

Business and professional men have long regarded The Record-Herald as the best paper for their own reading, because of its splendid news service and the reliability of its financial, agricultural and market reports. Young men perhaps find its greatest attraction in its excellent sporting department, covering the whole range of the world's sports. Wives and mothers emphatically prefer The Record-Herald on account of its feminine departments—its daily recipes and menus, its daily fashion hints, the People's Institute of Domestic Economy and the many good things in the illustrated Woman's Section in the Sunday paper. Children enjoy the Zoo-Illogical Snapshots and other clean comic pictures with the bright stories for boys and girls every Sunday. And all the family together can enjoy Arthur M. Evans' home travel articles, Mr. Kiser's humor and verse, Ralph Wilder's cartoons and other daily features outside the news columns.

The Chicago Record-Herald has every right to call itself the best all-around family newspaper in the West.

ROSY OUTLOOK FOR BUSINESS

Buyers Of The Weed Will Be

An INCREASE OF STORAGE.

The Farmers Will Have Every

Their Tobacco.

Farmers can truly say "Everything is coming our way still." The outlook for the disposal of their tobacco was never more rosy, if the arrangements for buying the new crop soon to be marketed be any indication. Whilst buyers are to be plentiful and the floor men have already been up to get busy, the Planter's Association is to not only live but will be prominently in the ring during the next season.

As deliveries of the new crop have already been made, but by the first of December, should a season for handling tobacco be upon us, the crop will begin to move rapidly and Christmas money will be almost flowing in a continuous stream into the pockets of the farmers, and then merchants will be experiencing a general revival of trade. All indications, to say nothing of the election of a Democratic President, a big majority in the House of Representatives and a working majority in the Senate, point to still better times for the country is enjoying now.

There is no cause for apprehension or a depression of business here or elsewhere. Good times have come to stay. Everybody is optimistic now and prosperity is coming to all. Now we give a few points that are of interest to the men who handle tobacco. The market will soon

A big storage house is to be built alongside the railroad, from Fourth to Fifth streets, and is to be completed by the first of the year. The Geo. W. Helme Co. is to build for their own use. The company, very evidently, will next year cover the entire square, running back to Campbell street.

There were no happier homes in the city last Thursday than that of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds, on East Thirteenth street. The occasion was the celebration of Dr. Reynolds' 68th birthday. The Dr. has recently moved into his new double-story concrete house and there could be no better plan to have a house warming than by having Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds' children and grand children in the home on the same day. Ted Reynolds, who is now living in Milwaukee, was the only child who could not be at the reunion.

Though Dr. Reynolds is now close to the three-score-and-ten line he is as hale and hearty as a man of forty-years. His many friends wish him and Mrs. Reynolds many, many years of future happiness.

Those present were: Dr. J. B. LaHiff and family and E. C. Outlaw and family, and Misses Nannie and Louise Reynolds, of Indian Mound, Tenn., Elliot Reynolds and family and Tom Reynolds and family, and Miss Flossie Reynolds, of this city.

DIED AT KANSAS CITY

George Rutherford's Remains Arrived Yesterday Evening.

CAUSE OF DEATH UNKNOWN.

Funeral From Mrs. Landes'
this Morning at 10 O'clock.

Intelligence by wire was received Sunday morning by Mrs. Catherine E. Rutherford of the death her son, George Rutherford, at Kansas City, Mo., Friday night.

The first news of Mr. Rutherford's death was received by his brother James, at Burlington, Iowa. This message was repeated to his mother, but it contained no particulars of her son's death, merely stating that the remains would be shipped to Hopkinsville for interment. The body was to arrive yesterday at 5:32. The remains were carried to the home of Mrs. Mary Landes, North Main street. Funeral services will be held at Mrs. Landes' this morning at 10 o'clock. Burial in Riverside Cemetery.

The deceased was the third son of James and Catherine Landis Rutherford, of this city. His father was a native of Scotland and was prominent in the mercantile business here a quarter of a century ago. He died several years since. Mrs. Rutherford is one of the oldest of our citizens, being now in her eighty-fifth year. For several years she has been living with her daughter, Miss Susie, at St. Charles Court. Besides his mother and sister two brothers of the deceased are living, James B. Rutherford, of Burlington, Iowa, and Robt. B. Rutherford, of Slater, Mo.

Mr. Rutherford had been engaged in business in Slater for many years and had been very successful. Just a short time since he went to Kansas City and went into business. He had never married, hence the partic-

WHAT THE CHILDREN SAY ABOUT THE HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN VACUUM CLEANER

"This is easy, mother. It gathers the dust and I don't have to wrap up my head in a towel. You make my dress and I will clean house. It will give us both more time for other things, since we do not have to dust and replace the furniture when through cleaning. The Hopkinsville Kentuckian knows a good thing when it sees it, and think of the price—$6.00 for the paper by mail, Tri-weekly, Twelve Months, and the machine for as many years.

Dumb Chills and Fever.

Douglasville, Tex.—"Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Miss Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four different doctors, but got no relief, so I began to take Cardui. Now I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. As a tonic there is nothing in the drug store like it. As a remedy for women's ills, it has no equal. Try it. Price $1.00.

The New Balkan Union

The sudden appearance of a new and formidable corporate power, the Balkan Confederation, is already an important factor in the game of European politics. As long as the four Balkan States, Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece, acted separately, they were helpless. As long as agents of Turkey or the Powers were able to stir up Servians against Bulgarians, and Bulgarians against Greeks, to mutual quarrels and mutual slaughter, the foolish and wicked game went on and the Turk profited. Moslem atrocities upon Christians were counterbalanced by Christian massacres of Turks, until murder, rapine and desolation were the order of the day in Macedonia. Meanwhile, the great Powers solemnly made proposals and wrote diplomatic notes. Program succeeded scheme, and agreement succeeded program. Up to the first part of last month the plain truth would seem to be that neither Turkey nor the great Powers intended to do anything at all. When the Balkan States realized the truth of the adage that in union there is strength, and acted upon this realization, the moral authority of the so-called Concert of Europe disappeared. This feeble Concert, having shirked or ignored its duties of guardianship, the subjects of this guardianship asserted themselves, and the Balkan Confederation was born; a new and pregnant fact in the maze of European politics. Hardly had the notes of Bulgaria, Serbia and Greece, and the declaration of Montenegro been handed to the representatives of the Porte when the old Concert revived somewhat, and attempted to coerce the little states and persuade their big antagonist into a reconciliation. But all signs indicate that it is too late. The Balkan war will go on or the reforms demanded in Macedonia and withheld for so many years will be realized, and the Turks, with the consent, if not under compulsion of the Powers, will give absolute guarantees of the execution of these reforms.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of Reviews for November.

THE SCRAP BOOK

PEOPLE IN THE CLOUDS.

Bolivia has taken a most unique way among the South American countries of observing its national birthday. It proposes to celebrate by opening a railway which will give it a short line across the coast range of the Andes down to the ocean. Bolivia's July 4th, that is, its independence day, comes on August 6th, and this is the day set for opening the railroad which connects the capital La Paz with Arica on the Pacific. Bolivia itself is one of the most interesting countries in the world. It sometimes has been called the imprisoned country because it had no coast line. Its great table land or plateau sustains more than 1,000,000 inhabitants at an altitude of nearly two miles. There is no part of the world where so large a number of people find the means of subsistence at such an elevation. Tibet, as is well known, has very few inhabitants.—Christian Herald.

VALUABLE FIND OF OAK.

A rich find of black oak has just been made on a farm near Hull, England. The farm recently changed hands, and the new owners decided to clear away a wood which stood upon it. In excavating to remove tree roots the workmen discovered several trunks of black bog oak, and further investigations revealed hundreds of trunks of oak under the ground. They were in splendid condition, and had evidently been buried a century or more. It is customary to bury oak in order to turn it black and thus increase its value. Evidently that had been done in this case, but the death or removal of the proprietor of the farm caused it to be forgotten, and it lay undisturbed, and other trees were planted on the top of it. So great is the quantity and so compactly is it buried that explosives are being used to loosen it. The value of the oak is believed to be considerable.

HAVE IT IN FOR SCHWAB.

"Whenever the name of Charles M. Schwab is mentioned, even the mildest-mannered man in the foreign contingent in Pekin breaks into strings of abuse," says a letter from there. "The steel man, on the first day he was in the Chinese capital, went from his hotel to the Temple of Heaven and back in a rickshaw. The coolie's legitimate tariff was ten cents, but Schwab, with a flourish, handed him $5 and walked away. Never again did he come out of the hotel without it being necessary to call the reserves of the Chinese police force to quell the disturbance created by the efforts of one hundred rickshaw men to secure him as a passenger. Moreover, it was not until several months later that the other foreigners were able to convince the coolies that the rate set by Mr. Schwab was not a working standard."

PRICE OF SUICIDE RISES.

A missionary in China writes that the price of opium is now higher than ever on account of the stringent measures taken by the government to suppress the cultivation of the poppy. "This rise in price," he says, "has one good feature. Raw opium is a poison, and when the crop is in hundreds of women utilize it as a means of ending their troubles. Now, however, the price is so high that the rolls of opium contain only about three parts of opium to seven of leather waste. At least ten such rolls are needed to produce death, and each roll costs ten cash, or one cent. The price of suicide by opium is, therefore, ten cents, which is much more than most of those desiring death can possibly scrape together. In other words, suicide is now a luxury which only a few can afford."

Five hundred volunteer "explainers" working in four-hour shifts will be well drilled in the particular trade, they are to elucidate and will give any information desired.

The officers of the Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit are: Mrs. Morris Betk nap, president; Mrs. Alfred Brandies first vice president; Miss Elizabeth Walsh, second vice president; Mrs. L. W. Thompson, secretary; Dr. Ann Louis Strong, director; Miss Agnes Brandies, assistant director.

Various committees and subcommittees have been working in their departments and the results already accomplished have been extremely gratifying to those in charge.

Much Detail Involved.

The tremendous amount of detail work attached to such a stupendous undertaking can be grasped only faintly by a visit to the headquarters in the Armory. The only handicap that is encountered is the very serious emergency. The New York Child Welfare Exhibit shows cost $100,000 and were visited by 250,000. The screens erty and pursuit of happiness its aim. The purpose of the exhibit will be shown "What we are doing for children; what we are not doing for children; what we ought to do for children."

The Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit organization has been in existence since last January, but its work has been so unostentatious, so quiet, so unobtrusive that few realize its magnitude and scope. Beginning the night of November 21 at 8 o'clock and lasting ten days the public will have an opportunity to judge of the vastness of the undertaking. The exhibit will be held at the armory and will be open daily from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night with the exception of Sunday and Thanksgiving day, when it will open at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and remain open until 10 o'clock at night.

Scope Comprehensive.

Everything that relates to the child, and through the child to the parent, will be dealt with. To epitomize the exhibit it will consist of screens, moving pictures, live exhibits, model dairy, model tenement, free clinics model dining-room and kitchen, dirty and clean barn, model playground demonstration of the work done at the School for the Blind and the Babies Milk Fund will have a booth which will be in charge of a trained nurse where mothers can leave their babies and where fresh pure milk will be provided.

The conditions and needs of Kentucky children will be shown in the following sections: Health, schools, the child and the law, settlements and educational movement, recreation, industrial conditions, moral and religious life, country life and schools, philanthropy and homes.

Everything that relates to the child, and through the child to the parent, will be dealt with. To epitomize the exhibit it will consist of screens, moving pictures, live exhibits, model dairy, model tenement, free clinics model dining-room and kitchen, dirty and clean barn, model playground demonstration of the work done at the School for the Blind and the Babies Milk Fund will have a booth which will be in charge of a trained nurse where mothers can leave their babies and where fresh pure milk will be provided.

The conditions and needs of Kentucky children will be shown in the following sections: Health, schools, the child and the law, settlements and educational movement, recreation, industrial conditions, moral and religious life, country life and schools, philanthropy and homes.

Five hundred volunteer "explainers" working in four-hour shifts will be well drilled in the particular trade, they are to elucidate and will give any information desired.

The officers of the Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit are: Mrs. Morris Betk nap, president; Mrs. Alfred Brandies first vice president; Miss Elizabeth Walsh, second vice president; Mrs. L. W. Thompson, secretary; Dr. Ann Louis Strong, director; Miss Agnes Brandies, assistant director.

Various committees and subcommittees have been working in their departments and the results already accomplished have been extremely gratifying to those in charge.

DISPLAY TO COST MANY THOUSAND

CHILD WELFARE EXHIBIT AND CONFERENCE AT LOUISVILLE NOVEMBER 21-30.

TO BE HELD IN BIG ARMORY

For The Redemption of the Young of the Present Generation and Future Generations Great Meeting Will be Held.

The Kentucky Child Welfare Conference and Exhibit, designed for the ultimate redemption of the children of Kentucky, even until the third and fourth generations and primarily designed for the reclamation of these children of the present generation, will be held in the commodious First Regiment Armory in Louisville, November 21-30. The exhibit proper will be in session ten days. The conference will be in session three days, November 25-26-27 and the conference will be held in the Warren Memorial Presbyterian Church, corner Fourth and Broadway, one of the most convenient meeting places in Louisville. That the child is father to the man is the belief of those back of the Child Welfare Exhibit, and to give the child at least an even break for health, liberty and pursuit of happiness its aim. The purpose of the exhibit will be shown "What we are doing for children; what we are not doing for children; what we ought to do for children."

used there were used in Chicago, and in addition $50,000 was expended. Their efforts were awarded by an attendance of 410,000. Exhibits have been held in Kansas City and Northampton, Mass., and are to be held in St. Louis and Montreal. Then Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit has secured nearly $4,000 so far, but much more is needed. Donations may be sent to the Kentucky Child Welfare Exhibit at the Armory.

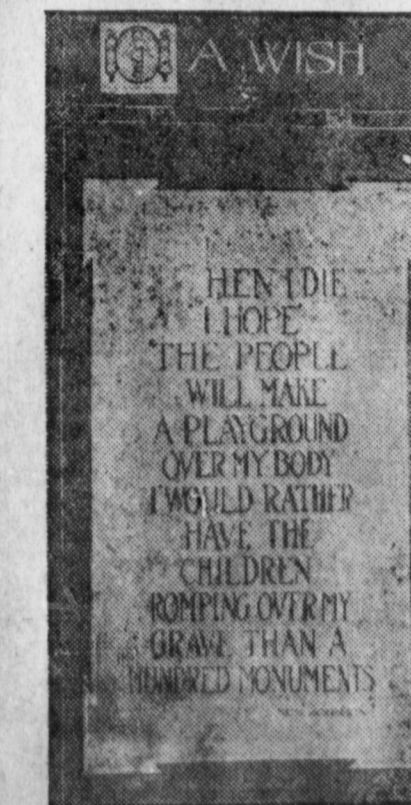

The Child Welfare Exhibit has been accorded the hearty co-operation of the Board of Health, Board of Tuberculosis Hospital, various charity organizations and the churches. Statistics have been looked up, information of technical character furnished, reports on local conditions in various branches have been submitted and tabulated after being verified. The various committees total 230 men and women. But, as is usually the case where committees are appointed, a few active spirits do the work and the others come strong on the suggestion end. That the workers, the real workers, have been unremitting in their efforts is shown by the splendid results achieved.

CHILDREN TO ENTERTAIN

Choruses of school children, folk-dancing and gymnastic exhibitions, kindergarten and folk-games, drills and athletic contests by the Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Y. M. H. A., the Turners, and many other organizations, will take place in the Central Court every afternoon and evening except Sunday. Free moving pictures on Child Welfare will be given afternoon and evening.

On Friday evening and Saturday afternoon, November 22-23, the Historical Pageant given in Central Park in May, 1911, will be repeated.

The directors and managers of the Louisville Exhibit have been preparing for their great task since the National Child Labor Association held its annual convention in Louisville last January. The enthusiasm and inspiration aroused at that time has been productive of such excellent results that Dr. Strong unhesitatingly asserts that the Louisville Exhibit will be the most enjoyable and successful in the history of the entire movement. She has secured the services of 500 young Louisville girls who are studying their various parts and will devote their full time during the week of the exhibit to explaining the various exhibits and giving information and guidance to visitors.

GREAT SCHOOL CONVENTION.

In connection with the Kentucky Child Welfare Conference and Exhibit, two other notable conventions will be held in Louisville: the Child Welfare Conference proper will be held November 25th and the Exhibit will continue until November 30th. The Southern Educational Association will hold its annual convention at Louisville, beginning November 28th and continuing three days. It is expected that one thousand southern teachers will attend this convention. Mrs. Charles C. Weaver, of Louisville, has taken advantage of the Southern Educational Association and of the Child Welfare Conference, which will be in progress at that time, to call a convocation of school improvement workers, the first ever held in the world.

THIS CITY'S POSTMASTER

An Answer To A Question
That Has Been Often Asked.

HOLDS OFFICE UNTIL 1916.

The Precedent Established By President Cleveland Still Observed.

Since the most skeptical are now convinced that, after the 4th of March, the reins of Government will pass into the hands of the Democrats, the slate makers of Wilson's cabinet have not only been busy but the question has been repeatedly asked if Hopkinsville's postmaster will be removed after the President-elect is inaugurated.

No so. We have seen Mr. Williamson's commission. It says that he was appointed for a term of four years from the 15th day of January, 1912.

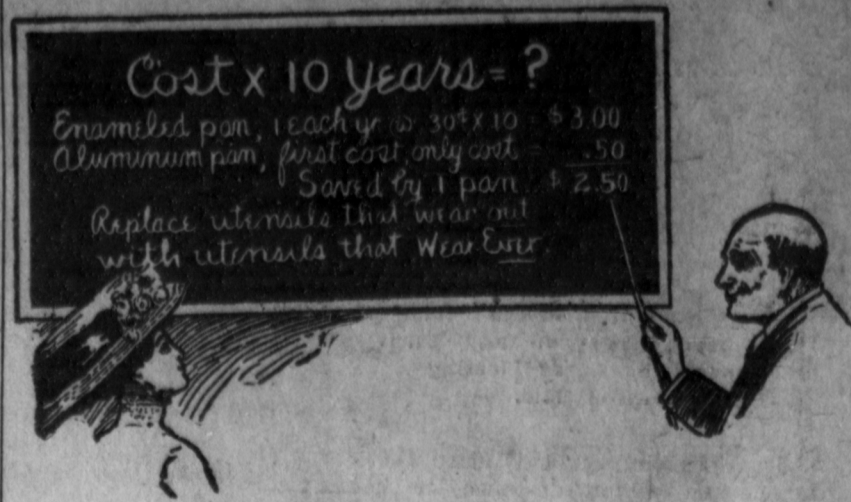

Maj. John W. Breathitt tendered his resignation on March 22, 1911. It was made on account of continued illness and general disability. The resignation was not accepted and he continued in office until Mr. Williamson was appointed.

When Cleveland went into office the first time everybody thought all office holders would be swept out and Democrats put into their places. Very much to the surprise of all people Mr. Cleveland did not apply the rule that had always prevailed, but established the precedent of allowing appointees to serve out their terms. This precedent has been observed ever since and there is no reason to believe it will be done away with after March 4th. And there is no reason for its continuance. It is merely a precedent, and may be said to be unwise. It can certainly be no help to the party in power. Mr. Cleveland was the father of civil service, but those who believe that "to the victor belong the spoils," believe that there are plenty of capable men, who have never had a taste of the "spoils," who could be rewarded for party service. This opinion largely prevails today, even if experience and efficiency are most desirable. Why should a man hold office in any department forever because he has done his duty. "There are others" waiting for an opportunity to serve the administration and the country, and would do it well.

Jovial and popular, attentive to business, but a full-blooded Republican as he is, Mr. Williamson by his party loyalty won the office he holds and he is not at all liable to be removed—unless precedent be swept aside.

Two Apologies.

An American editor advertises for his missing hat: "The gentleman who inadvertently took our new beaver, and left an inferior article in its stead, will do us infinite kindness by returning ours. He shall receive our warmest thanks and two apologies—an apology for the trouble we have given him, and the apology for a hat he has left us."—London Telegraph.

Certain Old School Books.

The state board urges that all old school books be sterilized and tells how it can be done to the damage of the bacteria, but not to the books. We suppose it is right. It is better that children live healthfully than that so time honored an institution as the combination school book and towel survive.—Toledo Blade.

Truly a Mean Man.

"That was the meanest crook I ever ran across," said the police officer in a community where graft prevails. "What has he done?" "He got me to fix up an iron-clad system of 'protection' for him and his gang, and then robbed the savings bank where I put my rake-off."

Mock Cream Pie.

Make a rich paste and line one plate; cut a round with the top of another plate of the same size and bake on a tin sheet so that it will be flat. Heat two cups of milk to the scalding point. Mix three-quarters cup of sugar, one-quarter cup of cornstarch, two beaten eggs and a pinch of salt. Pour on the hot milk and cook fifteen minutes, cool and flavor with one teaspoon of vanilla. Fill the lower crust and place the top one on evenly, for it cannot be moved successfully after it has once touched the cream.

Western Muffins.

Mix together one and a half pint of flour, half a pint of cornmeal, two teaspoonsful of baking powder, one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt. Work in one tablespoonful of butter or lard, beat and add three eggs, one pint of milk and beat the whole quickly into a firm batter. The muffin rings should not as a rule be more than half filled. The griddle should be hot and well greased to receive the rings. When the batter rises to the top the muffins are usually ready to turn.

Fruit Pinwheels.

Two cups flour, four teaspoons of baking powder, not very full; one teaspoon salt, two tablespoons sugar, two tablespoons butter, two-thirds cup of milk, one egg, one cup raisins, one cup currants and a little citron. Roll one-half inch thick, brush with melted butter, then add the fruit. Roll like jelly roll, cut one-half inch thick, then bake. The icing is made of powdered sugar, with a little cream and vanilla. Spread with a knife.

Boiled Salad Dressing.

Beat two eggs, add six tablespoons of water, three tablespoons of vinegar, a salt spoon of salt, a dust of pepper and one-quarter cup of butter. Set the dish in another of hot water and cook until the dressing is thickened like a custard. Cool and when used add one-quarter cup of thick cream beaten stiff. For me this would be better to add a teaspoon of mustard.

Spanish Charlotte.

Place crumbs of stale cake or rolled crackers on the bottom of a pudding dish and put a layer of any kind of jelly or fruit over them; continue them alternately until the dish is nearly full, making the crumbs form the top. Pour a custard over it and bake. Serve with sauce.

Acquired Information.

"In case you're asked," said the judge, "take it from me that the last letter of the alphabet is 'z.'" "I've learnt something today," remarked the prisoner, gratefully.
